the purity of his blood, with other interesting facts relating lobis career:—
SAID (also spelled Sayod), as given by the groom of Nubar Pasina, Minister to France from Egypt, was found on the 27th of March, 1988, at the stables of Nubar Pasha. His sire was the famous Khorassan, the property of Abdul Medjid. Said's dam was Obtan, the property of Abdul Medjid. Said's dam was Obtan, the property of Nubar Pasha, and is the descendant of the ceicbrated Janizora, which leaped the citated walls with the last Mameluke Bey when fleeting from Makonned Ali in 1819. Therefore, Said is a cross between the Nedjid breet on the mother's side and the Anasseh breed on the side of Khorassan.

This grand Arab stallion exhibited wonderful powers of entarance and speed in the Abyssiolan war, being riiden constantly by an officer during that campaign.
